TIBETAN YOUTH CONGRESS

Her Excellency Dr. Tsai Ing-Wen
The President of Taiwan
Taipei, Taiwan

Your Excellency,

Tibetan Youth Congress offers our warmest congratulations to you and your party Democratic Progressive Party for delivering a record-breaking election result of 8.2 million ballots and winning the presidential election for the second term. Your election result has sent a clear cut message to the communist government of Beijing that the Tawainess people will continue to cherish and defend the democratic way of life in Taiwan. This result has not only demonstrated the dance of democracy in Tawain but it has also sent a clear message to the world that the desire for democracy and freedom continues to grow and glow.

This victory has thrown a big blow to Beijing by highlighting and demonstrating the Independence aspiration of the Taiwanese people in the election result. Tibetan Youth Congress, the largest Tibetan Non-governmental organization which fights for the complete Independence of Tibet stand strong with the people of Taiwan in fighting against the oppressive and authoritarian interferences of the Chinese Communist Party. We look forward to continuing seeking the support of Taiwanese people in standing solidarity with our aspiration for the independence of Tibet.

The Tibetan Youth Congress (TYC) is a worldwide Organisation of Tibetans united in our common struggle for the restoration of complete independence for the whole of Tibet, which includes the traditional three regions of U-Tsang, Do-toe, and Do-med. An independent Organisation, with a written constitution and its plans and programs, TYC has emerged as the largest and most active non-governmental Organisation of Tibetans in exile. It has more than 30,000 members worldwide.

With best regards
Yours Sincerely
Gonpo Dhundup
President
